

Bedford Stuyvesant Multi-Service Center

1958 Fulton Street | Brooklyn, NY 11233

Phone: 718.363.2750 | Fax (718) 363-2753 | CAMBA.org

Under the auspices of the NYC Human Resources Administration OLUR & MSCs

Occupant Directory

CAMBA Health Link Program

718.408.5755

CAMBA's Health Link Program is an innovative new model of care management focused on improving health outcomes for individuals with severe mental illness and other complex chronic illnesses through coordinated networks of medical, psychiatric, behavioral health, social service and housing providers. CAMBA's Health Link Program is a leading care management provider in NYS Department of Health's Health Home program, created to make health services easily accessible to Medicaid recipients.

CAMBA Healthy Families Program

718.826.2223

Healthy Families has worked to improve the health and well-being of infants and children for over 20 years. The program offers home-based services to expectant families and new parents, beginning prenatally or shortly after the birth of a child. Home visitors assist families with creating a safe and nurturing environment for their babies.

CAMBA HomeBase Program

718.408.5756

CAMBA's HomeBase homelessness prevention program provides a variety of homelessness prevention tools to assist families and individuals experiencing a housing crisis, who are at imminent risk of entering the shelter system. HomeBase is the aftercare provider to those who have left shelter with a subsidy and those placed in NYCHA housing.

Central Brooklyn Jazz Consortium (CBJC)

718.773.2252

CBJC produces affordable and educational music programs. The organization presents an annual jazz festival, a youth jazz day, and themed cultural events.

Digital Girl, Inc.

347.635.4045

Digital Girl is dedicated to empowering undeserved youth, especially girls, to pursue careers and studies in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) disciplines. We go into public schools and community based organizations to provide hands on training and instruction in STEM based disciplines.

Entertainers 4 Education Alliance (E4EA)

718.385.3133

E4EA is a drop-out prevention initiative and call to action for students, parents, and the entire community to increase educational achievement in youth. Our goal is to provide powerful messages to youth about the importance of educational excellence. We accomplish this through youth development engagement, community outreach and various forms of multi-media platforms and corporate partnerships. We enlist the talents, resources of the music and entertainment industry, along with prominent high profile individuals to stress the importance and coolness of being educated.

Grassroots Artists MovEmnt (G.A.ME)

718.618.0533

The mission of the Grassroots Artists MovEmnt (G.A.ME) is to use Hip-Hop, art and social justice programming to empower poor Black and Latino communities against socio-economic political injustices. We aim to help our community control the resources we create. Using Hip-Hop's historically powerful anthems against social injustice we address youth incarceration, poor health care access, and the labor issues affecting artists. G.A.ME has focused on three main components: artists, young people and health care inequity.

Bedford Stuyvesant Multi-Service Center

1958 Fulton Street | Brooklyn, NY 11233

Phone: 718.363.2750 | Fax (718) 363-2753 | CAMBA.org

Under the auspices of the NYC Human Resources Administration OLUR & MSCs

Occupant Directory

Little Flower Children & Family Services NY - BedStuy Community Partnership Program

347.365.3852

Our mission is to serve children and families by providing the adequate tools for effective meaningful change against challenges plaguing our community while positively impacting the well-being of families and our communities.

Longlife Information & Referral Network 718.778.0009

Longlife Information & Referral Network provides services for persons with all forms of disabilities including their families. Services include: Supported Employment, Day Habilitation Program, Community Habilitation, Housing, Service Coordination, Respite/Soul Karaoke and Unity Food Cooperative.

Metropolitan Family Services

718.858.7234

Metropolitan Family Services offers people with intellectual disability and developmental disabilities a comprehensive range of services across their lifespan. Our mission is to help others achieve the fullest life possible by creating new opportunities for living, loving and working.

Purelements An Evolution In Dance

347.533.8933

The mission of Purelements is to use multiple facets of the performing arts as educational tools to evolve and transform the individuals and communities we serve, and to present dynamic performances that are socially relevant and impactful. The Purelements' mission unfolds through our professional and pre-professional dance companies, an arts-in-education program, and a performing arts program. Through our programs, we use the arts as a vehicle to support personal development, expose children to careers in the performing arts, support aspiring artists with developing and refining their talents, and to educate program participants and audiences on social issues affecting their communities

Rewarding Environments for Adult Living (REAL)

718.604.2634

REAL seeks to provide services and supports that sustain, enhance or create environments that are rewarding for children, adults and families. Our objective is to have a positive effect on the lives of individuals who have entrusted us with their care.

The East Brooklyn Leader

347.766.8325 (TEBL)

The East Brooklyn Leader provides a wide variety of pertinent information and resources to the East Brooklyn communities via referrals, email, community outreach, website and social media.

Warren Prep Academy - PS 28 K

718.467.2865

The Warren Prep Academy is an Elementary school for children Pre-K thru 5th Grade. Our mission is to teach all of our students at Warren Prep Academy how to read, write, think, compute, speak well, love the arts and behave in socially acceptable ways in order to become economically independent, contributing members of society ready to enter college and careers. At Warren Prep Academy, we view ourselves as having a civic responsibility to ensure that our children succeed. Only in working together on a variety of levels can we provide our children with the opportunities to experience success in their lives. We strongly believe that this can happen with strong positive relationships between parents, school, and community partnerships equally committed to student educational success.